Moynalty Goes Wild 2016 – Free Festival !

Friday 21, Saturday 22 and Sunday 23 October 2016

Green Foundation Ireland will hold Moynalty's first weekend
Sustainability Festival at the Moynalty Steam Threshing Museum, Co. Meath

WHAT'S HAPPENING

The Moynalty Goes Wild Sustainability Festival runs over the entire weekend, takes place in the Moynalty Steam Threshing Museum (apart from Sunday) and is FREE to attend.

FRIDAY 21 OCTOBER 2016:
8:00pm – 10:30pm / UPCYCLE YOUR OLD FURNITURE
FREE upcycling event with Valerie Shekleton – bring along your old picture frames and furniture.

SATURDAY 22 OCTOBER 2016:
2:00pm – 5:00pm / FARMING, WILDLIFE AND RENEWABLE ENERGY- Opened by Duncan Stewart, with speakers on farming, wildlife and solar energy.

While this is happening, there will be EVENTS FOR CHILDREN, including a film titled "The Life of Trees" organised by Sky View in their mobile planetarium, and also Fionn Keeley talking about fossils.

8:00pm – 10:00pm / FREE FILM, "Thrashed"
SUNDAY 23 OCTOBER 2016:
2:00pm – 5:00pm / BUILD A BADGER SETT

NOTE: Sunday's event will take place in Golashane Nature Reserve, Tierworker, Kells, Co. Meath
If lost, please contact Donna Mullen @ 087 745 4233This event is made possible with the financial support of the Local Agenda 21 Partnership Fund at Meath County Council.