

You are cordially invited to an introductory workshop on the role and work of MWRSS. The purpose of the workshop is to increase the knowledge base of community and voluntary organisations about our work how they can support women and children to access information and supports.

- Introduce the issue of domestic violence in Ireland, how domestic violence is defined and understood and the issue of domestic violence in Co. Meath
- Provide an overview of the role of a local domestic violence service and its purpose
- Give specific information on referral to our services, accessing information/advice on the supports and services MWRSS provide, including how local community groups, voluntary groups and the public can engage with us
- Through a Q&A session to explore issues, questions and ways that MWRSS can work with community and voluntary organisations and the wider public to address issues of domestic violence in Co. Meath.

Who is this workshop for: Community/ Voluntary Organisations

Date: Monday 2nd of October 2017

Time: registration at 9.45 and workshop begins at 10 am sharp to finish at 12.30 pm

Venue: Unity Centre, Dunloe Park, Windtown, Navan. (directions can be found on their website(www.unitycentrenavan.com) Refreshments: a light lunch will be served at 12.30 pm to 1pm

As places are limited, if you wish to attend this workshop please fill in the attached booking form and email it to: sineadmeathwomensrefuge@gmail.com by the 25th of September 2017

This event is funded by the Meath County Council Community Action Grants Scheme

Booking Form

Name:

Organisation or Group:

Email Address:

Contact Phone No:

Available for light lunch: YES

NO