Here is some information to help you prepare:

- You have the option of attending a Zoom session or a telecall.
- The workshop will last for 1 hour.
- There will be a mix of people with lived experience, professionals, and family members/carers.
- In co-production, everyone is an expert in their own experience. In this way, everyone is equal. There are “No labels at the table”
- Mary and Ruth will be asking some general questions and making suggestions to help the discussion, and will take notes. You can say as much or as little as you like.
- We strive for confidentiality: Your privacy is important and we ask that you please ensure the privacy of others in the same way.
