Act Out Youth Theatre are delighted to announce their 3 Day Summer Project for 2021 – MUSIC THEATRE PERFORMANCE - in the Solstice Arts Centre, Navan, from 14th-16th July. The young people will have an opportunity to hone their acting & singing skills with workshops such as Voice; Solo Singing; Ensemble Singing; Musical Theatre History; Acting for Music Theatre & much more.

All this for €100 for the full 3 days.

The course will be facilitated by Act Out YT AD Anthony Kinahan (MA in Music Theatre from the Royal Central School of Speech & Drama, London); Louise Foxe (MD & Choral Director [Gardiner St Gospel Choir]) & Mark O'Reilly (TUD).

Express your interest by emailing actoutmeath@gmail.com ASAP.

Places are limited & all current COVID-19 guidelines will be adhered to in consultation with the Solstice Arts Centre, Youth Theatre Ireland & the Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration & Youth.

Quote from AOYT AD Anthony Kinahan:

"Act Out Youth Theatre have responded to the current challenges of COVID-19 restrictions by being as flexible & adaptable as possible.

We are proud to say our weekly workshops & other projects, have continued to operate quite successfully over Zoom for the majority of the last 15 months, but we are now very excited to get back into the space together.

We are delighted to be offering this summer project to young people aged 13+ in the Meath area & to both new & existing members."

REGISTER NOW FOR SEPT 2021

Act Out Youth Theatre is now accepting new registrations for September 2021.

If you're a young person in the Meath area (of secondary school age) interested in learning more about theatre, performing or expressing yourself in artistic ways, then email actoutmeath@gmail.com - expressing your preference for workshops in Navan or Dunshaughlin - and you will be added to the Act Out YT Waiting List.

More about Act Out Youth Theatre:

Established in October 2017, Act Out Youth Theatre's remit is to create quality theatre experiences with young people (12+) in the Meath area. We are a not-for-profit charity, partnered with Solstice Arts Centre, Navan, Co Meath & partnered & supported by Meath County Council Arts Office.

We are also a proud member of the Irish youth theatre community and affiliated to Youth Theatre Ireland. In the last few years, the members of Act Out have produced original, acclaimed plays (Inception & PROJECTIONs) in the Solstice Arts Centre; Stormed the Púca Festival; Had workshops with national experts, like Meath's own playwright Deirdre Kinahan (The Unmanageable Sisters; Rathmines Road) & Casting Director Louise Kiely (Sing Street; Normal People); Participated in week-long residencies in Kilkenny with youth theatres from all around the country; Had various theatre-trips and much more ... & all this on top of usual weekly workshops.

We provide an annual programme of activities, responding to the needs & interests of the young people, & we pride ourselves on our ethos of accessibility, diversity & inclusion. Our main objective is to nurture the education, social & personal competencies of our young people ensuring our activities are of benefit to the community, in so far as our work reflects local issues & community needs.

We aim to foster partnerships within the community & to advance the arts, culture & heritage of the area with young people at the helm.

Usually our workshops run every Monday at 6.30pm in Dunshaughlin & every Tuesday 2 workshops in the Solstice Arts Centre, Navan, at 6pm & 7.30pm.
