'MEATH COMMUNITY RESOURCES & SUPPORTS'

A support booklet created for families with additional needs

Meath Child & Family Support Networks (CFSNs) is delighted to launch 'Meath Community Resources & Supports', a support booklet for families of children with additional needs in Meath.

Mental health advocate Rory O'Connor, of Rory's Stories, joins us to launch the booklet on February 29th in the Ardboyne Hotel, Navan. Many of the services and organisations featured in the booklet will have stands and be available to provide information, guidance and advice on the morning.

Free event for parents and services working with children and families in Meath.
