Meath Education & Training Network Newsletter

Welcome to the November Edition

As we head into the final weeks of the year, November is a great time to reflect on what you've achieved and to consider what you'd like to accomplish next. Whether you're thinking about returning to education, gaining a new qualification, developing your skills for work, or simply exploring a new interest, there are still plenty of opportunities available.

In this edition, you'll find information on upcoming courses, open days, events and supports to help you take the next step.

Happy reading,

🎶Interested in Traditional Irish Music, Song and Dance in the Slane Area? 🎻

Have you ever heard of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann (CCE)?

Comhaltas is a worldwide organisation dedicated to promoting, preserving and celebrating traditional Irish music, song, dance, language and culture. It brings people of all ages and abilities together to enjoy our rich musical heritage, learn new skills, share their talents and make new friends.

We are exploring the possibility of developing a Comhaltas presence in the Slane area and would love to hear from anyone who might be interested in getting involved or becoming a member.

Whether you are:

* A traditional musician or singer
* Interested in learning an instrument
* A dancer or lover of Irish traditional music
* A parent interested in opportunities for children
* Simply someone with an interest in Irish culture and heritage

We would love to hear from you!

Would there be an interest in establishing a Comhaltas branch or group in the Slane area?

No experience is necessary – just an interest in traditional Irish culture and a willingness to get involved.

Please make contact on Slane Residents Facebook page if interested.

A project supported by PEACEPLUS,

NATIONAL POOL LIFEGUARD QUALIFICATION

ROYAL LIFE SAVING SOCIETY UK

Cavan Course:

Looking for a rewarding role in the leisure and fitness industry? The National Pool Lifeguard Qualification (NPLQ) is the UK and Ireland's leading lifeguard certification, opening doors to employment in swimming pools, leisure centers, hotels, gyms and aquatic facilities.

This fully funded course will equip you with the practical skills and confidence to respond to emergencies, perform pool rescues, administer first aid and CPR, and ensure the safety of pool users. Through a combination of classroom learning and hands-on pool-based training, you'll gain an internationally recognised qualification that is highly sought after by employers.

Ideal for anyone aged 16+ looking to gain a valuable life skill, enhance their employability, upskill for their current role or explore a new career path. On successful completion, participants will receive the RLSS Level 3 Award in Pool Lifeguarding (NPLQ) certificate.

Course Dates and Times:
Friday, 27th November (9.00am - 2.30pm) – Face-to-Face Theory
Saturday, 28th November (8.30am - 5.00pm) – Theory and Practical

Understanding dyslexia can help open doors to learning and opportunity.

Join NALA's free webinar on Supporting Adults with Dyslexia on Friday, 13 November at 10am.

Hear about the experiences of adults with dyslexia and learn how you can better support people you work with who may have dyslexia.

You will hear directly from Dyslexia Ireland about the information, support services and advocacy they provide for adults with dyslexia.

If you work in a community or voluntary organisation, this session will provide practical insights and guidance to help create more inclusive learning and support opportunities.

This is the second webinar in our four-part Literacy Opens Doors webinar series for the community and voluntary sector. If you join us for all four webinars, you will receive a NALA Certificate of Completion.

Work Placement Experience Programme (WPEP)

Now Open!

The 2027 competition for Temporary Clerical Officers in the Civil & Public Service is now open for applications!

The Temporary Clerical Officer (TCO) role provides candidates with the opportunity to take up temporary administrative and support roles in the Civil and Public Service.

Reporting to an Executive Officer or Higher Executive Officer, TCOs will provide customer facing services to the public either in person, over the phone and/or online, in addition to administrative office duties.

Applicants should be enthusiastic about learning new skills, confident about communicating and providing a quality public service to the public/customers and motivated to make positive changes to society.

TCO positions are used to cover short-term staffing needs, temporary vacancies or busy periods within an organisation/department. The duration of a temporary contract will vary from role to role.
